Help People Impacted by Lung Cancer

GET INVOLVED

Hope Rising

There has been a word floating in the air and in our conversations that has been missing from our thoughts for a long time: Hope. We have hope that we are finally seeing a way past an incredibly stressful and difficult year of our lives.

Patients First

Australian Lisa Briggs is proof that living on a different continent is no impediment to connecting with GO2 Foundation for Lung Cancer. In 2014, after months of misdiagnosis, she learned she had stage IV lung cancer, ALK-positive.

Caregiver Award Winner on Learning to Appreciate Each Day

For Wayne Yeung, being a caregiver means learning to live with uncertainty. His wife, Rebecca, was diagnosed with lung cancer in 2017. He's been on the cancer journey with her from Day 1.
